

Lights of Christmas

© 2011 by Kimberly Souther. All rights reserved.

© 2011 Illustrations by David Miles.

Published by Redemption Press, PO Box 427, Enumclaw, WA 98022.

No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any way by any means—electronic, mechanical, photocopy, recording, or otherwise—without the prior permission of the copyright holder, except as provided by USA copyright law.

Unless otherwise noted, all Scriptures are taken from the King James Version of the Bible.

ISBN 13: 978-1-63232-397-2

Library of Congress Catalog Card Number: 2010912709

Lights of Christmas

Reflecting Gifts from God

KIMBERLY SOUTHER

The Lights of Christmas is a book for children and everyone who likes Christmas! Many people each year decorate with lights. Light displays can be simple or elaborate. For many people it is a tradition to drive around and look at the lights. The lights are beautiful! Lights and colors have meanings, so as you read this book, think of the decorations that you see and discuss them with your family. Most importantly, always reflect the light of Jesus to others!

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

—Matthew 5:16

The yellow light reminds us of God's perfect light. We can find yellow lights on porches, in parking lots, and on street lights. These lights help us find our way. The bright star led the shepherds and the wise men to baby Jesus. His light always leads us to Him!